

St. Ignatius of Loyola

Saint Ignatius of Loyola was a Spanish Basque priest, theologian, and soldier wounded in battle in 1521.

He recorded his process of conversion for all people to find God in all Things.

During his lengthy recovery Ignatius experienced a profound conversion which ultimately led him to founding the religious order called the Society of Jesus (Jesuits).

SPIRITUAL EXERCISES

“Go forth and set the world on fire.”

St. Ignatius of Loyola

What are the Spiritual Exercises?

The Exercises are not instructions or sermons: they are guidelines to lead a person into deeper relationship with God.

They are not reserved for those in religious life, but are intended for all God's children.

There are no writing assignments, but journaling is required. Like all exercise they require discipline and commitment.

Ignatius divided his Exercises into "weeks" that are like stages to be adapted for you by your Spiritual Director.

In the 1st week Ignatius establishes the Principle and Foundation - uncovering one's ultimate purpose. One also explores God's profound love for us, despite our failings.

In The 2nd week we move to respond to God's love with greater generosity.

The 3rd week is the passion of Jesus. Dying to ourselves with Christ develops strength and courage to do God's will.

The 4th week concerns Christ's appearances following his resurrection. We are empowered to assume our mission.

Format:

We offer the 19th Annotation -
A 30 week format - where you meet with a Spiritual Director for an hour each week.

Nothing is more practical than finding God, than falling in Love
in a quite absolute, final way.
What you are in love with,
what seizes your imagination,
will affect everything.
It will decide what will get you out of bed
in the morning,
what you do with your evenings,
How you spend your weekends,
what you read, whom you know,
what breaks your heart,
and what amazes you with joy and gratitude.
Fall in Love, stay in love,
and it will decide everything.

Fr. Pedro Arrupe, S.J.
