OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Daylesford Abbey exists to enrich the church by our Norbertine communio, nourished by contemplation on God's Word made visible in worship and service within the local church.

OUR WAY OF LIFE IS MARKED BY...

a lifelong seeking after God through fraternal community, a never-ending conversion by giving ourselves to the church of our profession in communion with the self-emptying of Christ, in imitation of Mary pondering God's Word, and in ceaseless prayer and service at the altar.

EVENTS

JUNE 19, 1865 (JUNETEENTH)

On Saturday, June 19th we commemorate the end of slavery in the United States, and we also honor all of those who have, and continue to, advocate for freedom.

On June 19th, 1963 the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, while confined to a jail cell in Birmingham, Ala., wrote a letter to his fellow clergymen in which he said the following:

"Moreover, I am cognizant of the interrelatedness of all communities and states. I cannot sit idly by in Atlanta and not be concerned about what happens in Birmingham. Injustice anywhere is a threat to justice everywhere. We are caught in an inescapable network of mutuality, tied in a single garment of destiny. Whatever affects one directly, affects all indirectly. Never again can we afford to live with the narrow, provincial 'outside agitator' idea. Anyone who lives inside the United States can never be considered an outsider anywhere within its bounds." — Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, "Letter from a Birmingham Jail"

As we commemorate June 19th, let us celebrate the day when freedom was finally proclaimed, and as Christians, let us ask our Lord through prayer and reflection to guide us individually and as a Church community to work for racial justice.

We are grateful for your 2023

Annual Giving donations. Annual

Giving closes at the end of June.

You are encouraged to participate

RACE, INJUSTICE AND GRACE

How does an innocent Black man wrongly convicted by a White jury and imprisoned for 42 years keep his faith? Please join us at 7 pm Tuesday, June 13, at St. John Chrysostom in Wallingford for a very special evening with Leroy Evans of Chester, freed in September in a 1980 killing he did not commit. Mr. Evans will be joined by his wife and the attorney who secured his release. Hear his story, ask questions, and stay after for fellowship and hospitality. A freewill offering will benefit Mr. Evans and his family. Presented by the St. Martin de Porres - St. John Chrysostom Joint Ministry on Racial Justice.

More: www.astoryofinnocence.com. This event will be livestreamed at www.youtube.com/c/sjcparish.

For the next several months, while the church roof is being replaced,

All Weekday Masses

– Monday through Saturday – will be celebrated in the Atrium. Morning & Evening Prayer will also be celebrated in the Atrium Monday morning through Saturday morning.

Sunday Mass will continue to be celebrated in the church.

Saturday & Sunday Vespers will be prayed in the Divine Word Chapel.

Because of construction, the circle and door by the Divine Word Chapel are NOT TO BE USED – except on Sundays.
